

EXIT POLICY

Definition:

Employee exit management or offboarding describes the consciously designed separation process when an employee leaves the company, for which he has previously worked within the scope of a work or service contract.

EXIT POLICY IN OUR COMPANY

- Exit process is mandatory for everyone working at our organization, including interns, contractors, employees on probation period and full time employees. Everyone should be literally taken in this case.
- Exit process is mandatory for everyone even if they have worked for one day or for that matter for even a few hours in our organization premises.
- Anyone not completing the exit process as per Exit policy will be terminated under the reason 'absconding from duties' from the company and company may take legal action against such person for not submitting companies assets or not signing exit process documents.
- Exit process is mandatory even if, person moves out from one legal entity of our organization to another Organization entity.
- Exit process is mandatory to person, who is terminated for any reason from the company
- Exit process is mandatory to a person, who will be retired from the company for any reason.
- In case a person fails to complete the exit process due to any valid reason like, asset missing/ lost or damaged or any other disputed matter, the company can complete the exit process only after CEO/CTOs approval.
