

EXIT POLICY

Definition:

Employee exit management or offboarding describes the consciously designed separation process when an employee leaves the company, for which he has previously worked within the scope of a work or service contract.

Exit process when a employee resigns

1. Complete Exit Form on Intranet and get signature from respective managers/heads.
2. Submit all TPL assets to Admin department on last working day.
3. Salary of current month will be paid after 15 days of last day of employment in the next payment cycle.
4. Before paying the salary employee is supposed to sign the no-dues certificate
5. If employee is ready to sign the no-dues on the last day of employment, than salary is deposited into his/her account after 20 days on the next payment cycle.
6. Experience/Relieving letter is one combined single document needs to be provide to the employee on last working day of his employment.

Exit process when an employee is asked to resign based on performance or behavioral issues.

1. Collect all TPL assets from employee on last day
2. Talk to employee in person, at least two members, in no case there should be only one member talking in such case.
3. He should be given choice to resign or terminate as per his wish in two days and employee should be sent home immediately after collecting assets with him.
4. In case of termination, termination letter should be provided to employee immediately and given compensation for upto 7 working days max.
5. In case he decides to give resignation letter follow steps 6 through 9
6. Salary of current month will be paid after 20 days of last day of employment
7. Before paying the salary employee is supposed to sign the no-dues certificate
8. If employee is ready to sign the no-dues on the last day of employment, than salary is deposited into his/her account after 20 days
9. Experience/Relieving letter is one combined single document needs to be provide to the employee on last working day of his employment.

Exit process when an employee is absconding

1. In case employees is absconding from his duties for one or more day, without any notice or leave or in absence of any communication with him, we need to provide termination notice depending upon organisation need and.
2. If employee doesn't return back to office we need to send termination notice to his postal address.
3. If employee fails to complete the exit procedure of the organisation and does not showup for to office to complete the exit procedure, his termination letter needs to be sent to his postal address.